

I am in agreement with the proposal made by the NCVEC for removal of the requirement of Morse code proficiency from part 97 of the FCC rules. This proposal is simple and straight forward to implement and is the most equitable of the proposals I have seen. I urge you to accept this proposal as soon as possible.